Description

Very smart pair of antique Swedish satin birch armchairs with curved backs, dating from around the 1890-1910 period. The frames are solid, in good condition & they have just been re-upholstered in a stain resistant fabric, plus the seats are fully sprung, so comfortable. As you can see from the images, they look good from all angles & the finish on the satin birch frames has that lovely silky finish, plus plenty of character. Width - 26", 66 cm Depth - 26", 66 cm Height - 34", 86 cm Seat height - 18", 46 cm
