Description

A stunning antique pine double wardrobe from the Alsace region. Dating from 1880 and in very good condition for its age. Two lovely panelled doors that are mounted on the original external hinges, allowing the doors to open wide. The feet are typical of this region and give the piece an elegant feel. The original lock and key is in good working order. This particular wardrobe, as with most of our large wardrobes, totally dismantles. Delivery and access is possible through any difficult doorway or stairway. A new brass hanging rail will be fitted for you. Please let us know if you would like a shelf made to go above the rail. Price as it is in the bare wood £820 Price including our professional wax polishing service £897 Height 77", width 61.5", depth 25.5", internal depth 22"
