Description

An antique silver double watch chain with later RAOB silver and enamel fob. The chain is hallmarked on the T-bar and the clasps for 1914/15 with a maker's mark for Henry Williamson. Each of the links has the lion passant silver mark. Each chain measures 20cm long including the T-bar and the clasp. The chain comes with a 1940s jewel fob from the Royal Antediluvian Order of Buffaloes, a social and benevolent Fraternal organisation open to men. Its aim is to aid members in need and also their families, and to assist charitable groups. This particular medal was presented in 1947 and has an inscription to the reverse. The total weight of the chain and the fob is 43.1g.
