Description

A Windsor barback armchair in Beech with an Elm seat. A really super country armchair, a traditional farmhouse or cottage example. An unusual high back version and completely original. Dating from the mid C19th and more than likely from the Oxford/High Wycombe area. No damage, height loss, woodworm or old repairs. The inner seat area measures 15" wide by 16" deep and is 18.5" from the floor.
