Description

Dating from the 1800s this neat bow fronted side table is in good condition from a local house. We have waxed and buffed this and it is now ready for a new home. We are often asked for tables that are slim and this is one of those fairly rare examples. Being 14.5 inches deep on the sides and 16ins in the middle it is slimmer than the vast majority. It has had some restoration in the past, losing the dove tails on the side drawers. Everything does run smoothly however and they are useful storage. A classic Georgian line and good colour and neat brass circular handles this will not disappoint. Priced very keenly in the circumstances at only £245 it would be very difficult we think to find another that is in similar condition for anything like this cost.
