Description

A charming little table dating from 1910, in very nice condition, with two small drawers. The top drawer is partitioned and still has the original lock and key that is in good working order. The bottom drawer is shallower. The decorative pedestal base has a romantic feel to it, making this little table very eye catching. It would look lovely by a large window giving the owner a perfect place to sit and write or draw. Or, it would work well in a hall as a telephone / lamp table. Or as originally intended in a bedroom as a dressing table or bedside table. It has recently been stripped to the bare wood ready for waxing and will look delightful once finished. The price includes our professional wax polishing service. Height 32", width (at the widest point, the feet) 30.5, depth 19.5"
