Description

Oil on canvas by artist Alfons Verheyen. The marine painting shows the Schelde river/estuary. It is signed on the rear and marked Schelde and A.V on the side. The artist has used a very limited palette to give an dramatic effect. The painting is in good condition. The painting dates from around 1940. The Schelde River, also spelled Scheldt, French Escaut, river, 270 miles (435 km) long, that rises in northern France and flows across Belgium to its North Sea outlet in Dutch territory. Along with the Lower Rhine and the Meuse rivers, Alfons Verheyen (1903 - 1990) painted in Italy, France and Belgium.
