Description

A charming and most useful early 19th century Hepplewhite period mahogany CHEST-OF-DRAWERS of small size and in fine condition. The beautifully figured top, with its 're-entrant' front corners, is cross-banded with satinwood, whilst above the four graduated drawers is a useful brushing slide. These drawers are all lined in oak and retain their original brass plate handles. It is supported on shaped bracket feet and measures just 30ins (76cms) wide.
