Description

Very fine pair of George I walnut and marquetry inlaid cabriole leg hand chair. Wonderful early shape with high backs. Cabriole front legs with swept pad foot back legs. Shaped top rails with scroll carved decoration. The chairs beautifully inlaid with the original marquetry. The drop in seats have old calico covering just waiting for the outer cover of your choice. Possibly IRISH. The chairs are a lovely colour with great original patination. There are a couple of very minor old repairs as to be expected on a pair of 300 year old chairs but nothing serious. SIZES; 23" wide. 41" high CIRCA; 1715 - 1725
