Description

Large and impressive pair of early C20th French or Italian carved giltwood twin branch wall-lights or appliqués in the mid C17th Louis XIV manner. Powerful pair of wall-lights in carved wood with well-detailed decoration and with gilded surface. The tops with sun-mask or sun-God motifs, the shaped bodies with central vacant carved cartouches and trailing husk details. The shaped twin arms with 'stiff-leaf' carving and carved bobeches and knozzles. In excellent condition, with no breaks damage or repairs. The gilding of a subtle aged patina. Supplied with their original aged 'candle-wax dripped' papier-mâché lamp covers. In need of rewiring, which could be done to client's specifications. H 26" W 17" D 7" France c.1920
