Description

An antique silver pocket watch with history. The watch has a key-wound movement which is working nicely. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch itself measures 50mm diameter excluding the stem and the loop. The case is silver and there are hallmarks inside the case back for Birmingham 1884. The case is in good condition for such an early piece, just three small indentations to the side. The watch glass is in good order. The signed white enamel dial is in good condition, blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and an outer minute track. Also included with the watch is a piece of paper from Christmas 1927 when the watch was given 'to Vinnie by her mother and father'... previously the watch had belonged to Vinnie's grandfather a Mr A W Rodway, so it is was a true heirloom. The watch will be sent in a new presentation box. The background photo is a generic photo, it is not included and does not form part of the history of the watch. FREE WORLDWIDE SHIPPING
