Description

Late 19th century stunning Austrian terracotta sculpture of a female by Frederic Goldscheider . Designed and signed by the German artist F.Gross and with the Frederic Goldscheider stamp and foundry numbers. This sculpture is in wonderful condition, patinated in naturalistic colours. Frederic Goldscheider opened his famous Goldscheider factory in 1885 in the city of Vienna. He worked in several mediums including ceramics, bronze and terracotta. He produced wonderful pieces of exceptional quality, winning various awards at the world fairs where he exhibited many of his works. He employed many famous and independent artists who created designs for him. He was an outstanding artist who's sculptures are greatly sought after today.
