Description

A splendid round inlaid mahogany revolving bookcase from the Edwardian period. Well made in solid mahogany, now with a great colour and patina. and decorated with inlaid stringing throughout. The circular top is fitted with a lovely brass gallery, the lions "hairy paw" feet and accompanying castors are also all in solid brass. This bookcase could also serve well as an occasional or wine table. We have had it sympathetically repolished to a very high standard and it is now offered for sale in excellent condition, with a great colour and patina. Dimensions: Diameter 46cms Height 67cms
