Description

ANONYMOUS: a charming pair of Regency period OIL PORTRAITS depicting (it seems) a well-to-do man and wife. He wears a stylish Regency topcoat and stock and is seated at a desk, book to hand, whilst she wears a fine royal blue dress and tends a silver vase of English summer flowers. Beautifully painted and in fine condition; the original frames have some losses. 12ins x 10ins (30.5 x 25cms). *Although apparently unsigned, there is an original label to the backs of both, with a reference in ink to "Peter Cox". The artist perhaps?
