Description

A very fine and elegant Georgian mahogany inlaid serpentine table of good proportions of Sheraton design (Possibly Irish) Circa 1800. Having a finely figured solid mahogany serpentine shaped top to all sides with rosewood and boxwood strung crossbanded edge. The shaped frieze having three decorative boxwood strung panels to the front and rear with one to each side. Raised on very fine and elegant tapering legs having boxwood stringing and unusual shaped brackets to the top terminating on spade feet. Having a wonderful colour and choice timbers this very good Georgian table is finished to all side enabling it to stand freely within the room if needed. Offered in excellent condition having been restored using traditional methods with a fine patina and colour this elegant table is ready for home use. A very attractive and fine period table of great shape. At Loveday Antiques we take the hard work out of buying antiques by assisting with quotes for a delivery service directly to your home.
