Description

An unusual and well drawn 19th Century leather armchair on walnut turned legs. This very good quality armchair having a rare rounded headrest has been upholstered in a fine quality hyde which has been hand dyed and coloured to a lovely warm tan colour, with decorative brass nailed studwork. Having a feather cushion seat makes this chair extremely comfortable to sit in. The shape is very pleasing to the eye with the chair being raised on good quality walnut turned front legs with splay back legs, still retaining their original brass and porcelain castors. Offered in excellent condition this antique chair dating to circa 1870 is a splendid design that will compliment any setting. We specialise in leather upholstery and have sold many types of chairs to interior designers, trade and private clients from all over the world. Seat Height 20 1/2 inches - 52cm Seat Depth 25 1/2 inches - 67.5cm At Loveday Antiques we take the hard work out of buying antiques by assisting with quotes for a delivery service directly to your home. Normally quotes are upwards from £80 to mainland England and most parts of Wales but can be cheaper so please ask. If you are outside of these a...
