Description

This pair of World War 1 Trench Art shell cases have shields on the front; one bearing the date 1914 and the other 1918. They have been beautifully made with decorative holly or ivy branches going around the shell case, and a smooth decorative feature at the base. The tops have been fashioned into points, reflecting the angular shapes of the ivy branches. Both shell cases are in excellent condition. They measure 35cm in height and have 8.5cm in diameter bases. Postage and packing within the UK mainland only has been included in the price, but for delivery to outside areas or abroad, please contact us for a quote for delivery costs.
