Description

A rare duty dodge Georgian silver 'Claret' label. This charming letter 'C' decanter label is of wonderful quality. Fully cast, it features foliate decoration and a dragons head forming the top of the letter and the bottom. It is supported on a belcher chain. To the reverse the makers mark is stamped twice presumably as a duty dodge to save tax being paid at assay and a way of giving some hallmarks without the full set. A wonderful rare anomaly, sought after by collectors. P&P contribution :- £8.00 UK £12.00 Worldwide Condition :- Excellent, with no splits or dents. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable - Only the makers mark. Maker :- Joseph Taylor. Date :- Birmingham C1814. Width :- 2.5 cms (widest point). Height :- 3 cms (highest point).
