Description

An antique silver Waltham full hunter pocket watch originally retailed by Fattorini & Sons Bradford. The watch has a stem-winding movement which is working well and keeping good time to within around five minutes over 24 hours. The movement is signed A.W.W.Co, Waltham, Mass, 17 jewels adjusted and it has the serial number 16137895 which dates it back to 1907. The movement is protected by an inner hinged cover. The watch measures 52mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is silver and has hallmarks for Birmingham 1910. The case was made by the English based case maker Aaron Dennison who previously worked at Waltham. The case has some unevenness to the front and back and the odd small "ding" from use. The case back has monogrammed initials. The front hinge has some play in it from use although it is very strong. The winding crown pushes in to release the front cover. Inside is a plastic lens in good condition. The enamel dial is signed with the retailers name Fattorini & Sons, Bradford. The dial has a couple of small hairline cracks under the sub seconds dial but otherwise it is in nice condition. The watch has blued steel hands. The wat...
