Description

Antique walnut cocktail cabinet in excellent condition & dating from around the 1930's period. It's beautifully carved on the top, plus between & on the shaped legs. The two doors are burr walnut, with cross banding & the drawers are burr walnut too. There are very decorative embossed brass escutcheons & hinges on the doors. The inside of this drinks cabinet is well fitted out for use as a drinks cabinet, with a mirrored back & base, glass shelves, racks for glasses & even the original cocktail sticks. There is a light inside, but that will have to be checked & probably re-wired by an electrician. These drinks cabinets are proving to be very popular these day, mainly because they are very useful & also that they are extremely good value for money, especially with the workmanship involved. Width - 37", 94 cm Depth - 18.5", 47 cm Height - 62.6", 159 cm
