Description

Circa 1910 an original W.A.S. Benson oil lamp Registered No: 65891 with an original cranberry etched glass shade. The lamp is copper and brass with a cast iron weight inside the base, making it very stable. It measures 70cm in height in total; with a shade measuring 21cm wide and 15cm in height. The base of the lamp measures approximately 18.5cm in diameter, and everything is in very good condition. The burner control switch has a white porcelain top and is clearly marked: HINKS'S NO 2 DUPLEX. The Benson trade mark is clearly visible on the cap of the oil container - see photo 4, and the registered number is inside brass frame around the wick. The price includes postage and packing within the UK mainland only, and for outside areas or abroad, please contact us to arrange a delivery quote.
