Description

A wonderful set of four antique Edwardian Arts and Crafts high back dining chairs in the manner of Shapland and Petter and stamped A & H Barlow & Co Wigan (a known retailer of Shapland and Petter). With classic Arts and Crafts lines they have heart shaped cut-outs to the upholstered backs, and intricately carved top rails and stand on stylish tapered and out-swept legs united by cross stretchers. Solid and sturdy and in a beautifully figured light oak. The upholstery is tired and the springs have seen better days – these chairs have great bone structure, but are in need of reupholstery. Dating from circa 1905. Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: The frames are very solid and sturdy and in good condition. Upholstery in old and tired and the springs are old, in need of reupholstery. Dimensions: Width: 46cm Depth: 46cm Height to seat: 49cm Overall Height: 114cm
