Description

A good quality mid-Victorian period mahogany chest of drawers of generous proportions. Well made from a good dense grade of solid mahogany, now with a great colour and patina. Ample storage is afforded by the arrangement of 2 short of 3 long graduated drawers. The bottom drawer is particularly deep. The drawers are all fitted with their original decorative cut glass handles. We have had this chest sympathetically repolished to a high standard and it is now offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home.
