Description

A fine quality regency period round rosewood breakfast , or supper, table. Of fine construction with stunning rosewood veneers onto a solid mahogany frame. The table is decorated throughout with intricate brass inlaid detailing and stringing. The round top can be tilted up to display its beauty when not in use. The quadraform base is also decorated with inlaid brass and also beading to the column. The splayed legs terminate in their original solid brass "hairy paw" feet and castors. We have had this wonderful table sympathetically repolished to a very high standard. It has a lovely mellow colour and patina and is offered for sale in excellent condition, ready to go straight into the home. Dimensions: Diameter 132cms Height 75cms
