Description

A 19th Century Meat Plate. The rim decorated with a continuous trail of wild flowers, surrounding the centre, glimpsed through a grotto entrance. The romantic Arcadian scene, showing a river side, beside which three men fish, and a group fill large water vessels. In the background a group meet on a bridge, and people stand at the top of a castle tower admiring this view. Further cupola topped boat houses and Italianate buildings fill the scene. The rear marked for 'Clew Stone China'. Amusingly in the foreground a dog sniffs inside a broken barrel. Width 17 inches, depth 13 inches. Date c 1850.
