Description

A large and impressive Georgian bow fronted sideboard. Very well made in solid mahogany with attractive mahogany veneers. This sideboard dates to the reign of George III and is packed full of character. It is larger than a standard sideboard being well over 6ft long. It is of bold bow fronted form and fitted with its original brass gallery. The gallery has 3 pairs of candle sconces with decorative stylised birds head supports. The top of the sideboard is cross banded and the front, legs, and drawer fronts are all decorated with inlaid stringing. There is an arrangement of various drawers and cupboards providing ample storage space. The whole piece stands well on strong tapering legs which terminate in spade feet. This lovely sideboard is offered for sale in excellent original condition with a lovely depth of colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 197cms Depth 83cms Overall height 140cms Sideboard height 91cms
