Description

For your consideration is this fabulous and totally original 1930s Art Deco English double bed. The shape of the bed is very odeonesque and is accentuated by the outline border of Macassar veneers. The walnut veneered panels work beautifully and there's a great little detailing to the bottom of the footboard with little fan shades either side of the central panel. We've had this bed through our workshops and has been professionally and fully restored so comes to you in excellent condition. We also can provide a custom-made slatted base should you require one, just let us know. Delivery £75 mainland UK.
