Description

This is an antique telescope dating to the early 20th century. In fine order physically and optically, this three draw Broadhurst Clarkson scope carries the military arrow stamp and is engraved 'TEL. SIG. MK.VI, (BC & Co. Ltd Logo), 7857, O.S. 717 GA, (military arrow stamp)'. Dent free, the three draw tubes still offer a firm action with the black paint still largely in existence, the barrel and sun shade leather and stitching in good condition. The lenses are in good order offering a crisp, sharp image at a magnification of approx. 30x. The achromatic objective lens is 55mm in diameter whilst the eyepiece offers a swivel filter, moderating lens, option. A super scope with good practical field use today, delivered ready for use.
