Description

A Wedgwood green glazed majolica service in the 'Sunflower' pattern, circa 1880, moulded with a sunflower head within a basketweave border, comprising a two handled comport and six plates. All the plates are in excellent condition, but there are slight variations in the colour of the glaze and some have different Wedgwood back stamps indicating that although all 19th Century they are not all of exactly the same date. The serving dish has a crack to one handle. Plates 22cm wide, comport 29.5cm long.
