Description

Good 19th century Victorian oak and silver plated two bottle tantilus in pretty good clean condition. Virtually all the original plating is in tact and it works perfectly OK although there is currently no key. The two cut glass decanters are both original with original stoppers but there is a small chip to the underside of the neck on one of them as pictured. SIZE; 11" by 6" by 11 1/2" CIRCA; 1870 - 1880
