Description

A rare, small size rug of the Shekarlu sub tribe, made around 1880. The majority of Shekarlu rugs are in large format size and it is very unusual to find small format rugs of this sub-tribe of the Qashqa'i Confederacy. The main border is typically Shekarlu - powerfully framing the indigo-blue field with its myriad of quadrupeds and flowers. In very good condition, the rug is only in need of a good bath - arranged for this coming week. Size: 1.40m x 1.10m (4' 7" x 3' 7").
