Description

A Victorian lustre decorated pottery jug, circa 1860-1870, moulded in relief with roses, thistles and cornflowers and with a leaf finial to the handle, the flowers hand painted in colours with pink lustre highlights on a cream coloured ground with a pink lustre rim. Good large size, would make a great flower vase. In excellent condition, no chips or cracks, some wear to the paint on the raised mouldings. 22.5cm high.
