Description

A French Art Deco walnut dining room suite, comprising a rectangular table upon U shaped base (with a plate glass top) and a matching two door buffet. The table with roll front drawers at either end, enabling the use of extra leaves to extend the table, upon a pedestal cylindrical column support flanked by double U shaped scrolls to either side and terminating in an oval platform base. It also has a plate glass top which is not illustrated. The buffet with an inset marble top and two doors flanking a ripple moulded central section and roll moulded edge, raised on front column supports upon a platform base. In original condition with very nice figuring to the walnut. There is some edge wear to the table base and general marks commensurate with age. Table: 150cm long, 90.5cm wide, 77.5cm high to top edge (68cm high to underside of top) Buffet: 100cm high, 130cm long, 46cm deep
