Description

Three bronze coloured metal adjustable shop display stands, circa 1930, each with T shaped top which adjusts with a screw on the side of the tubular base section, the domed bases weighted to the underside with cast iron and stamped NORLYN - one with original paper label. I think these are very likely to be made of lacquered steel giving the impression of bronze. The largest stand measures 60cm minimum - 107cm when fully extended The two smaller stands measure 35cm minimum - 63cm when fully extended
