Description

A lovely burr walnut serpentine shaped table in the Queen Anne style. Well made in solid walnut with attractive burr walnut veneers. This table could serve equally well as a side, hall, lamp, or serving table. It stands well on long, elegant cabriole legs with carved detailing to the knees and feet. The serpentine shaped top is cross banded, has a gadrooned border and is surmounted by an up-stand with a carved central motif. There is a pair of drawers, each fitted with their original brass handles. We have had this lovely table sympathetically repolished by our team of craftsmen. It now has a wonderful colour and patina and is offered for sale in excellent overall condition. Dimensions: Width 127cms Depth 55cms Height 96cms
