Description

A wonderfully bright diamond in a wonderfully inventive ring. The high white old European cut sits nice and low to the finger, with fourteen eight-cut diamonds (seven either side) set within the head of the ring. The very fine crosshatching slightly "dulls" the metal, allowing the stones to really pop. Stunningly crafted. Accompanied by an independent jewellery report. Cut - Old European cut. Colour - The centre diamond is H. The outer stones are F to H. Clarity - The centre stone is SI1. The outer stones are VS2 to SI1. Carat - The centre stone is 0.97 carat. The total approximate diamond weight of the side stones is 0.19 carat. Circa - 1940. Size - M (UK) or 6 (US). Complimentary sizing is available, can be sized up or down. Measurements - The centre diamond is approximately 6.2mm in diameter. Sits 4.8mm from the finger. Metal - 18k white gold. Tested.
