Description

A wonderful example of a Racing Print, by Sir Alfred Munnings" titled "After the Race" showing a typical setting often used by Munnings, with horses and jockeys in the paddock after the race, set in a quality "Hogarth" frame. The dimensions including the frame are 83 cms by 70 cms and is printed by probably the best printers of that era, FROST and REED in 1951. An excellent quality print, this is one of two prints we have of racing scenes by Sir Alfred Munnings.
