Description

A Victorian Staffordshire porcelain christening mug, hand inscribed in gilt: 'Mary Ann Powell Potter Born Nov. 14th 1852 No.9 Northwich Terrace, Bath Road, Cheltenham' within gilt line borders and with leaf moulded, gilt scroll handle. It's quite unusual for a christening mug to also include the address of the recipient, more commonly they have a name or initials and a date. 9cm high Condition: No damage or restoration or wear to the gilt however the porcelain is fairly discoloured. Together with a Staffordshire porcelain friendship mug of a similar date, painted in coloured enamels with flowers and hand inscribed in gilt: 'When this you see remember me And bear me in your mind Let all the world Say what they will Speak of me as you find' 9.5cm high Condition: The enamels are nice and bright and with minimal wear to gilt rim, however there is one small hairline crack at the rim (see photograph)
