Description

This antique cocktail drinks cabinet is top quality throughout & burr walnut veneers on the front section give off a wonderful pattern. The sides are figured walnut & there is are fine carvings on the top & between the solid walnut legs. This cabinet has a lovely mellow warm colour & plenty of character. The top front doors have etched brass hinges & escutcheons . All the doors have canted corners too. The interior of the top half is beautifully fitted out, with sycamore veneers, glass shelves, mirrors & a pull out slide for serving drinks on. The bottom section was designed to put bottles in & there is a small drawer in there too. This cabinet is in excellent original condition, dating from around the 1930's period.
