Description

Early C19th George IV period mahogany 2-tier revolving 'dumb-waiter' attributed to Gillows of Lancaster. Superb quality mahogany double-tiered circular 'dumb-waiter', following a pattern and design by Gillows of Lancaster and London. The tiers with a moulded edge and of dished form, separated by a turned base stem. Raised upon a tripod base with carved leaf detail to the 'knees', reeded detail to the down-swept legs terminating in a claw-footed patinated brass castor. An excellent grade of timber with its original surface and polish which has achieved a rich patina. This dining-room 'dumb-waiter' with its reed enrichments, vase-turned pillar, and voluted Grecian-reeded leg and claw castor, corresponds to a design dated 1830 in the "Estimate Sketch Book" (no. 3962) of Gillow of London and Lancaster executed for a Mr. Bastard. *NB. An almost identical model sold by Christies, London, Lot 137, Sept. 20th 2001 £3760. H 36" W 26" D 26" England c.1830
