Description

This oval gilt mirror from the early to mid 1800s is in good original condition. The original mirror has some minor foxing as one would expect but is still most useable. The rope work on the oval frame and on the external embellishments is good with only minor shrinkage cracks but most importantly it is all in place. A good shape and in good overall condition it is keenly priced at only £545. We have given this a clean and cleaned the glass so it is all ready to go now. The depth quoted is from the wall to the front on the candle holder. SORRY RESERVED Do check out our web site as we have a good selection of mirrors at the moment. Examples in Mahogany, Walnut and Rosewood and of course Gilt. .
