Description

19th Century German Bell-Top Walnut Bracket Mantel Clock by Junghans 19th Century Walnut cased mantel clock with an 8 day movement made by Junghans, the worlds largest clock-maker at this time. The movement works well, it has twin chimes & etched with the eight pointed-star symbol and "Junghans" Circa 1890. This is a good time piece in Walnut with Ormolu mounts depicting Caryatid on the front corners, the clock has 3 turned finials and an etched silvered brass dial, with black enamel Arabic numerals which measures 5" in Diameter. The overall size is approx 20" High x 12.5" Wide.
