Description

Very large solid walnut antique dining table in great condition, having just been French polished. The top is solid walnut with a lovely grain & I think the rest of the table is solid walnut too. It has an extra leg under the middle, which I presume was put there to provide extra support. The bottom of the legs are brass capped. This table is very solidly built & is free from splits or warps. It's very large & would easily seat 10 people. I find it quite hard to date accurately, because I've never come across a table like this before, but judging from the construction I has to be 19th century, possibly from around the 1880 - 1890 period, or maybe earlier. Length - 96", 244 cm Depth - 36.6", 93 cm Height - 30.3", 77 cm
