Description

A wonderful and imposing mahogany linen press from the Channel Islands. Dating from the William IV period and well made in solid mahogany and stunning flame mahogany veneers onto an oak and pine carcas. This linen press is of very generous proportions and of very good quality. The pair of paneled doors to the top section open to access an interior with two adjustable trays (slides), these doors are lockable (key supplied). They are surmounted by a bold cornice. The base section has a series of 4 long graduated drawers, fitted with lovely original carved rosette handles in solid mahogany. The sides of the doors and drawers are flanked by columns with stylised tulip heads. The whole thing stands on bold and impressive feet, front and back. The front feet are in the form of paws. This stunning and hugely practical linen press is offered for sale in excellent original condition with a wonderful rich colour and patina. Dimensions: Width 152cms Depth 65cms Height 234cms
