Description

Pair of late C18th George III period 'faux' or simulated rouge marble wooden Tuscan columns . Smart pair of C18th architectural interior columns in the form of the Tuscan order. The partial gilt decorated capitals with 'egg-and-dart' ovolo carved decoration . The gently tapering rouge marbled pine shafts of the columns with well-executed simulation, the ringed bases onto a square section plinth foot. Have been the subject of some historic over-decoration and restoration to the paint finish and gilding . A stunning decorative period architectural statement for an interior scheme.
