Description

Late C19th Staffordshire pottery Chinese-style barrel-form garden seat or side table by Copeland Spode. Well-decorated Chinese-shaped barrel seat with pierced body and seat top. The sides with 2 bands of raised moulded 'stud-work' decoration. Decorated in a typical English late C19th palette of green and pink/mauve hues with wild flower, bud and leaf printed pattern. Under-glaze blue Copeland Spode mark to the underside, together with a scripted red pattern number. Would work equally well in an interior or exterior decorative scheme or in an orangery or conservatory. In excellent condition with no breaks or repairs. Minor firing cracks to top.
