Description

A very good quality and unusual pair of antique Victorian Arts and Crafts hall chairs in oak. In an Arts and Crafts/Aesthetic Movement design, in the manner of Bruce Talbert, they are stamped underneath and have paper labels: "G R Hudson Cabinet Maker &C., King Street Leeds". They have solid seats, and nicely carved backs with gothic motifs. They stand on turned legs united by stretchers. A really good quality pair of chairs with lots of details and carving and in good condition with warm colour and good patina. Dating from circa 1890.

Construction/Wood: Oak Condition Report: Good condition. Solid and sturdy frames. Good colour and patina. A few small scuffs and scathces to frames commensurate with age. Dimensions: Width: 46cm Depth :46cm Height to Seat: 46cm Overall Height: 106cm
