Description

Welcome to Mersham Manor Antiques- A very charming 18th century Georgian solid oak dresser. George III. Very elegant with an abundance of character to the oak, having much warmth, with a beautiful glowing rich colour and characterful patina. The original dresser plate rack has three shelves, with a moulded cornice over a pretty carved scalloped frieze. The dresser base is of joined construction, having five spice drawers over three frieze drawers above a pot board base. The drawers are of dove-tail construction and oak lined. Having evidence of several handle changes over the years. The current handles being Georgian of late 18th / early 19th century design. With the original locks to each drawer. A lovely characterful dresser with an abundance of space for displaying. Standing on stile feet. The top can be removed for ease of moving and transporting. The condition overall is excellent antique condition, with general expected signs of use consistent with age. The dimensions are. Height-206cm. Height-73cm to top of base section. Width-153cm. Depth-44cm. VIEWING. Viewing is available at our showroom in Kent, please contact us to arrange an appointment-than...
