Description

Absolutely stunning set of silver gilt and enamel spoons. Fully hallmarked for Birmingham 1936, dating to the Art Deco period by the renowned silversmith Henry Clifford Mathews. Each spoon handle is decorated in different colours in a panelling effect. The bowls are in silver gilt to the front. The back of the bowls are enamelled in very fine decorative scenes. Please view the photographs to fully appreciate these super works of art. The spoons are presented in their original fan shaped box with velvet and satin linings. The spoons and box are in very good overall condition. Each spoon is 9.8cm long and 2cm maximum with to the bowls. Overall a magnificent rare set.
