Description

Pair of Queen Anne style walnut wing-chairs The Ayleswade chairs Here we have this fantastic pair of leather wing chairs The frames made in the early 20thc in the Queen Anne style with the best and desirable features, with roll arms, shaped back, with superb solid walnut replacement carved front legs and cabriole legs to the rear. These are no doubt the best of this type on the market. Recovered by hand in fine leather, then hand dyed before the long and time consuming antique finish is applied. Each one of the hundreds of brass studs are gently tapped in individually, a long process but worth it as they add to the wonderful finish they have. 121cms high 70cms deep 81cms wide Seat height 52cms Seat depth 56cms Width between arms 52cms
